

NEW COURSES

Creating Compassionate Schools

Choice Theory in the Classroom:
Where Every Student Can Succeed

All CE Credits Online courses are approved for clock hours through ES D 113 or university credits through Seattle Pacific University*

Register and pay for CE Credits Online courses through ES D 113 at www.esweb.net/wa_esd113/catalog/browse.aspx?mode=online

Choice Theory in the Classroom: Where Every Student Can Succeed

Choice Theory in the Classroom: Where Every Student Can Succeed focuses on conveying strategies to help teachers develop choice theory connections with and among the students in their classrooms. It is intended to present the basic concepts of choice theory and how it is applied in the classroom at any grade level.

Creating Compassionate Schools

Creating Compassionate Schools offers insight into challenges faced by professionals across the educational spectrum in identifying, addressing, and collaborating around the complex needs of students impacted by adverse childhood experiences.