MRS. JESSEE'S LETTER TO OUR FAMILIES

Dear Tumwater Hill Families,

Our Pacific Northwest weather has definitely arrived here at Tumwater Hill. However, we still have a lot of items in our lost and found. Just like you, we want students wearing their coats. During conferences, please be sure to stop and look for any missing items.

A big thank you to Mr. Walton who was here to sub for our Asst. Principal Mrs. Masunaga this fall. We said thank you and goodbye to him on October 31st and we welcome Mrs. Masunaga back on November 1st.

Our construction project continues to move along. Please note that when students are not attending school in the afternoon of conference week that the contractors will be moving equipment and trucks back and forth across the playground to keep our project moving along. I want to point this out so that our families don't send students off to play on the playground without supervision while they are in their conferences.

Our fabulous PTA will be hosting the book fair again this year. It will be open conference week, so please stop by and check it out!

All my best,

Mandy Jessee
Tumwater Hill Principal
