Redo Policy

If an absence is excused, then homework and classwork can be made-up. You will have an additional day and the same amount of time to complete homework as the original assignment time given. Pre-arranged absences need to be communicated with instructor to arrange make up homework credit.

Culinary Arts Syllabus 2023-2024

When reassessments are offered, all students may be reassessed, regardless of grade on original assessment, if they meet the following requirements:

- Complete the original assessment.
- Complete all assigned formative assessments (homework, classwork) for same standards.
- Complete reteaching/relearning activities, as determined by the teacher.

Homework Policy & Late work Policy

Upcoming assignments and due dates of assignments will be posted. All assignments will have a due date; if the assignment is not turned in by the end of class on the day that the work is due, it is late. All late work is worth up to 85% of the original total, and will be accepted for five school days. No late work will be accepted, five days after the assignments due date; for students with accommodations, 504 plans and IEPs will be followed.

Food & Drink –Food and drink must be purchased in our program and a receipt is required for proof of purchase. We will have opportune times to taste food for culinary educational purposes. Beverages and food are not allowed while using digital devices.

Leadership

Second year students will have the opportunity to apply for a position to take on additional leadership responsibilities. Student led leadership and culinary competitions will be available. Student led catering events, mock interviews, and station projects will be completed. Students will be graded on the utilization of 21st century skills (soft skills).

Additional Policies and Course Requirements

Acrylic nails, long fingernails or nail polish and jewelry are not allowed in the Culinary Arts program. This is a company-wide and industry safety rule and is non-negotiable.

NMSC Expectations & Policies – Student Handbook

Students are expected to review and follow the school rules, procedures, and processes outlined in the NMSC Student Employability Handbook. New Market Skills Center follows Tumwater School District board policies. Rules will not be reprinted in the syllabi.

Culinary Arts Syllabus 2023-2024

Cheating/Plagiarism

Students are expected to do their own work. Cheating and Plagiarism (presenting another writer's work as one's own) will not be tolerated.

Electronic Equipment

Personal electronic devices, including but not limited to, cell phones, iPods, PSP's, mp3 players, cd players are not allowed in the kitchen lab and classroom, there are exceptions; with positive communication to instructors, and only during specific times; the instructor will inform students when electronic devices are permitted.

If Students are using their phones/devices inappropriately they will be warned once, to please put the device away. The second time they will be asked to give the device to an instructor for the remainder of the class. For the third disruption, they will give the device to staff, then instructors will communicate home and with administration to decide if the student needs to be subject to further discipline. If a problem continues, cell phones/ devices will need to be picked up by the parent/guardian.

Safety Policy

Each student will have a current WA state food handlers permit and must do so before entering the kitchen. Students have three days to get their food handlers permit before it effects their grade. This is primarily a lab class and students cannot participate without the permit.

Safety is paramount in the food service industry; the students will be trained initially and regularly through rigorous food safety and physical safety standards to comply with all State, Federal, and Sodexo Company policies.
