Princeton Prize in Race	The Princeton Prize in Race Relations recognizes and rewards	1/31/23

Relations Award

high school students who have had a significant positive effect on race relations in their schools or communities through their volunteer efforts. Each committee evaluates applications on each of three criteria. The first is the significance of your activity and how it promotes racial harmony, understanding, and mutual respect among community members. We also consider how important your role was in the activity. Finally, we consider the scope and impact of your activity on the community. There are two parts of the application — one for you and one for your sponsor. Your sponsor must be a teacher, advisor, community or religious leader, or other responsible adult, who is not related to you, and who oversaw your project or who has directly witnessed your project's outcome. They must be familiar with the work you are presenting for the Prize. Each part of the application can be completed separately online — OR — downloaded, printed and mailed.
