

The MIDTERM is happening. (From now to Halloween.)

“MIDTERM” means middle or midpoint of a set length of time – in this case, a semester.

A semester is eighteen (18) weeks long.

So, the middle of a semester (or term) is about nine (9) weeks.

At MIDTERM, art students will be midway through the three (3) assignment categories in Studio Art:

- SKETCHBOOK – about 40 pages (out of 80 for the semester)
- ART HISTORY – about 4 renditions in a portfolio (out of 8 for the semester)
- PROJECT – about 20% of the canvas pieces/squares completed

After evaluating their work at MIDTERM, art students will have nine (9) more weeks to complete assignments (or make them up as needed).

At the FINAL, the last weeks of the term/semester, art students will display and evaluate the quality and quantity of their work to help determine the final letter grade they earned – A, B, C, D, or F.
