

TUMWATER SCHOOL DISTRICT

CALENDAR ART CONTEST

Tumwater School District is seeking entries for our calendar art contest. One winner will be selected for each school. If selected, your artwork, a photo of you, and your quote (see below) will be included in the District calendar that is distributed to all of our families in August.

Criteria: Submit your original piece in 8.5" x11" landscape format of any art media: painting, drawing, photography, picture of sculpture, etc., to your school office no later than April 19th with the contest entry form (below). Artwork must be appropriate to be viewed by all ages. Teachers are allowed to submit student class assignments if the student is contacted and given a chance to decline entry. Make sure your name is on the back of the artwork as well as attach the entry form with a paperclip (no staples). Original artwork will be returned to the student.

Include a quote of up to 50 words that starts: "Art is important to me because ...."
